Letter from the Sunset Hills Neighborhood Association President

Happy Almost Fall! Autumn is my favorite time of the year and it's especially beautiful in Sunset Hills. I can't wait for cooler weather and to see the leaves on the trees begin to turn colors.

Fall is also the time of year we turn back to the business at hand and put away most of our vacation thoughts for a while. That is true of the Sunset Hills Neighborhood Association as well. The Board will be meeting in the next few weeks to start planning our Semi-Annual Neighborhood Meeting for late October or early November. Please let us know if you have any ideas/topics, suggestions or volunteers for speakers. We want to address your concerns at the meeting, so your input is very valuable!

Also, we are still looking to fill several Board and Committee roles. We have had some people contact us, but we still need more volunteers. The roles are not time consuming and it's a great way to meet your neighbors. We will be asking anyone interested in these positions or joining the board to attend our next Board Meeting, for the first half hour, so that we may answer any questions you may have. I'll also be glad to talk to anyone who is interested prior to that. Just give me a call or shoot me an email.

I hope you all enjoy the beautiful sights of the autumn foliage both in Sunset Hills and around the area. The lighted Christmas Balls will be going up before we know it!

Sources of Neighborhood Information

The Sunset Hills Neighborhood Association has a website, Facebook page, and a listserv. Many pictures of neighborhood events appear in color on the website and on the Facebook page.

Get to know your neighbors in text and print and learn the news: <http://www.sunsethillsneighborhood.org>. If you are not on the new Google groups listserv send an email to Adam Graham-Squire (adam.grahamsquire@gmail.com) and you will be added. The listserv is monitored. The neighborhood Facebook page is:

<https://www.facebook.com/SunsetHillsGSO>

When you have a question about tradespeople, spot a stray dog or cat or note something unusual, submit a message to the listserv and the message goes out to all the members. The listserv is monitored to keep the messages relevant to this area and on topics about the neighborhood. You must have paid your 2019 dues to submit a non-emergency message to the listserv.

DUES are due in January. However, it is never too late to pay for the current year. Please remit your $10 directly to the treasurer, Elaine Brune at 2504 Sylvan Rd. Checks for more than $10 will be accepted as donations to the Sunset Hills Neighborhood Association.

Community Advisory Council Meeting

By Mary Schwarz and as sent out to the Google group.

-There is a new Captain for District 1; his name is Chad Williams. As captain for our patrol division, he is responsible for long-term problem solving. Long-term problems can be categorized as issues that are problematic by their nature or problem locations or hot spots requiring a long-term response or well-coordinated, multi-faceted response.

-All neighborhoods reported successful National Night Out celebrations – we had perfect weather and such a fun time at our NNO at Lindley Pool. I hope many of you were there to enjoy the evening. Please contact me if you have suggestions for next year's NNO – I would appreciate any & all feedback.

-As usual, a spate of car break-ins resulted in reminders to LOCK OUR CARS & TAKE VALUABLES INSIDE

-There has been an uptick in aggravated assaults in Greensboro, many taking place at apartment complexes. GPD are using hot spot policing (increasing their presence & number of officers in the troubled areas) and using special groups of officers to serve warrants & apprehending known offenders to address these assaults

-The recently reported robbery at the Friendly Center Barnes & Noble has taken a turn and is not considered a random attack and perhaps was not a robbery at all...but still be aware of your surroundings

-Safety tips from Officer Wingfield:

Be aware of your surrounding while out, if you notice that you are being followed, do not drive to your residence, drive to a police station or a public area and call 911

when unloading things into your car, put your purse into the car first, then unload your items

listen to your gut and stay safe

if bushes, vines, or trees have over grown signs for your street or house number, trim them – emergency personnel need to see the signs for fastest response

The 2020 Census will be starting soon. Some neighborhoods have already had some preliminary door-to-door canvassers. Please see the following information from Officer Wingfield regarding what the city of Greensboro has available regarding the census.

From: Wingfield, BJ, District 1 CRO, 100 E Police Plaza, Greensboro, NC 27401, Office # 336-373-7707
\ Subject: Census follow up

From the meeting on Monday I looked into some information the city may have. They shared with me the following links.

Ad and Photo Submission

Adobe InDesign is used for layout of the newsletter. All ads, photos and graphics that are submitted should be high resolution (300 dpi plus). Photos should be sent as jpeg images. High resolution pdf is also good. Remember, it is always easy to change to 72 dpi for the web, but not as good to change low resolution to high resolution. Please submit ads in the actual size you want.

Update on St. Andrew's Episcopal Church going green project.

We have:

- Changed all of our lighting to LED lights which use far less electricity than incandescent or even fluorescent bulbs.
- Installed electronic governing systems on five out of six of our air conditioning systems. These controls reduce the use of electricity, provide more efficient cooling, and actually extend the life of the equipment. (The sixth system cannot be updated at the current time.)
- Installed wifi-enabled timed thermostats to reduce our use of HVAC systems when we don't need them.
- Applied for permission and are actively engaged in attempting to install solar panels on the roof in order to reduce our use of fossil fuels.
- Actively committed to reduce our use of disposable paper and plastic utensils, plates, and cups by using reusable products wherever possible.

If anyone knows of other projects in Sunset Hills, please send email to mrpsunset@gmail.com.

All of us at The Running of the Balls wish you a happy September and wanted to reach out with some details as we prepare for this year's event....

1. The date for this year's race will be December 14. As usual, it's on the 2nd Saturday in December.
2. Registration opened on September 14. Early Bird registration and Resident Registration were opened earlier.
3. We're off to a great start – We raised over $29,000 from our generous sponsors even before selling tickets to the event by welcoming back our Presenting Sponsors: Chick-Fil-A and Premiere Federal Credit Union. We've added a Bib Sponsor in Smith Partners Wealth Management. Additionally, we have 4 Stage Sponsors for this year's event: Phil Coggin Insurance, Our State Magazine, Emerge Ortho, and JA King.
4. The Resident's Page: Registration and info regarding the race can be found by following the resident's link at the bottom of the race page.
5. Resident's registration is available to any resident of Sunset Hills and their guests. It will close 2 weeks prior to the race, while regular registration will close much earlier than that because of the cap on non-resident runners.
6. Volunteers are always needed. Volunteer registration can be found here.
7. We still have 3 stage sponsors available. You can find out more information here.
8. You should see us in the neighborhood shortly after Thanksgiving. Each year we start around this time passing out fliers notifying folks and working to put up lights in the park.

Last year we raised more than $69K for Second Harvest Food Bank, bringing us to almost 3 million meals raised during the event's lifetime. Thanks again for allowing us to be part of your special neighborhood for one night again this year. Please feel free to reach out with any questions or concerns you may have.

Blessings.

Moravian Bands – Past and Present

By Chip Cook

If you live just a few blocks from the corner of Elam Avenue and Sylvan Street, you have probably heard the sounds of a brass band, more than likely during the first weekend of December, or perhaps very early on Easter Sunday morning in the spring. Like many Moravian congregations found in abundance in Winston-Salem (and in Bethlehem, Pennsylvania), Greensboro's first and only Moravian Church band highlights important events in the life of the church and its congregation throughout the year.

ORIGINS OF THE BAND

The Moravian congregation of Salem, now known as Home Church, was organized in November 1771. The first set of trombones arrived at the church in 1772. Trumpets and other brass instruments were added by 1850, and by the 20th century, woodwind instruments including clarinets, saxophones and flutes joined the band. The function of the band was to play at special outdoor events, worship services, and to announce the death of congregant members of the church. In fact, the band would play special music to announce the death of an adult male, female, as well as child. Even married status, or as a single man, woman or widow or widower, was signified to the community through the selected music.

Throughout the history of the Moravians in America, it is clear that men, women, boys and girls took music lessons on keyboard, brass-wind and other instruments. Music education and musical performance was integral in the lives of the early Moravians. Moravians still regard music as an essential and necessary part of life, adding to cultural value, as well as expression and development of religious life.

Following the early church teachings of singing in a 4-part harmony, symbolizing the equality of all in the eyes of God, the Moravian Band chorales were written in a soprano, alto, tenor and bass arrangement. The written music is shared with other Protestant denominations (especially Lutherans and Methodists), but a large number of the traditional chorales of the band are uniquely Moravian in origin and usage. For example, the Christmas carol, "Morning Star," written as a poem in 1657 by Johannes Scheffler, was musically composed by Moravian Francis F. Hagen, in Salem, in 1836.

TODAY'S BAND

The Moravian band of our century continues to perform for special outdoor occasions, celebrations, worship services, and continues the announcement of deaths of congregants of the church. The bands still fulfill their outdoor role, but have also been invited inside, and this takes many different forms in the various congregations, from solo instrument with organ to brass or woodwind quartet/quintets; from band accompaniment of hymns, to anthems with a wide variety of instruments.

Local to Forsyth County and surrounding communities, there is a special events and funeral band. Made up of members from over a dozen Moravian congregations, these musicians volunteer weekly and are called by email to play for activities and at graveside funerals. For Easter, the bands from all the Winston-Salem congregation churches and many others in the area, play "rounds" throughout the W-S city neighborhoods at about 2:00am to announce Easter morning and the resurrection of Christ. Assembling in Salem at sunrise for the Easter Service, the merged band of over 300-400 instrumentalists performs at "God's Acre," with a portion of the music played antiphonally. Home Church in Salem also provides free music education programs (beginning band) during the year for children and adults to help ensure future bands will exist for the church and community.

SUNSET HILL'S MORAVIAN BAND

First Moravian Church's band, consisting of brass and woodwind instruments, performs throughout the calendar year. However, December and March or April (depending on when Easter arrives) are the most active periods, with several performances to mark Candle Tea (Moravian "open house") and the Holy days leading up to Christmas and Easter. The band consists of adults and teenagers and is open to any person willing to practice and play with enthusiasm and enjoyment.

Following in the tradition of a young non-Moravian, Andy Griffith of later "Mayberry" fame, who played trombone at Grace Moravian Church in Mt. Airy, First Moravian Band welcomes any member of the community to join our band on brass or woodwind instruments. Please contact band leader Chuck Royster, by email, at chuck.royster@gmail.com. We would love to have you (and if you didn't know, we also have cookies).

Lindley Elementary Fun Run is Off and Running!

Every year, Lindley's largest fundraiser is the Run with the Pride fun run. The beauty of this fundraiser is that 100% of the money raised is invested directly into Lindley Elementary. This year and last year's funds will support the Technology campaign. At Lindley, we are committed to giving our students more opportunities for learning and hoping to purchase smart boards for every classroom. Last year donations from families, neighbors and local businesses allowed for each grade to get a smartboard. We are hoping to be able to invest in even more this year! If each student were to raise $150 we would be able to supply each classroom with this technology. The demographics of our special school makes this goal tough. Last year we launched a "sponsor a Lindley kid" at this dollar amount. It's a perfect way for grandparents, alumni and neighbors to give back to our school.

Students are now gathering donations and sponsorships from family and friends leading up to the run, which happens during the school day. On October 10th, classes will run, walk or skip around the track as many times as they can in 15 minutes. Grade by grade, these students will celebrate our great school, and the money they've raised for it with their feats of fitness! Please consider joining us on the track to run alongside our kids to encourage them for meeting their goals. We are so lucky to live in such an active and supportive community. Please contact Ashleigh Reier with any questions at 336.688.4802 or ashleigh@marquisseating.com.

Jerry Pifer celebrated his 75th Birthday in style with a gift from his daughter, Tina, of an ORANGE Mustang convertible! Jerry and Deborah immediately planned a day trip to Saxapahaw for lunch at the General Store. They invited friends (and ex-Sunset Hills neighbors) Bob and Carol Ingram to join them. They took the backroads to Saxapahaw to enjoy the scenery and avoid distracting drivers on Interstate 40. Sadly, the Mustang had to be returned to the rental car dealer the next day.

Lighted Christmas Ball Making Party

On the Sunday before Thanksgiving, November 24, Ridgeway Drive from Market to Madison will be closed off for the annual Lighted Christmas Ball (LCB) making workshop/party. If the weather is really bad the workshop/party will be the Sunday after Thanksgiving, December 1. Watch the Google group email (the Google group replaced the old listserv. If mystified, see the last issue of this newsletter, p. 3) for details as we get closer to the time.

For those new to the neighborhood, participants indicate how many LCBs they want to make so the chicken wire can be cut. We will need volunteers for doing that. Each piece will be priced to reimburse the purchasers. Participants bring two strings of Christmas lights for each ball they choose to make. The neighbors close to the party sight and a few others set up the tables and tape on the instructions. Some people are instructors to help new persons to fasten and smash chicken wire and string the results with the lights.

We usually bring snacks to share and end with a meal. It is too soon to know those details at this time. Again become a member of the Google Group and you will be informed.

Dog Days and Oliver Badges

By Jerry Pifer

The Sunrise Walkers Walking Group recently celebrated the Dog Days of August with a photo opportunity and dog patting delectation with their favorite canine, Oliver Sibley. Tom and Wendy have been kind enough to share Oliver with the group for several years now and we all enjoy our daily reunions accompanied by much licking of outstretched hands and vigorous head patting and tail wagging.

Although Oliver is not quite as excited to see us as he once was when we first met him, the mutual admiration is still strong. Walking group members Jerry & Deborah Pifer, Loyd & Libby Rich, Kathy Lautermilch, and Susan Slocum proudly display their official Oliver badges on Oliver's birthday and on selected celebrations and commemorations in honor of Oliver Stone, Oliver Cromwell, Oliver North, and Oliver Wendell Homes.

The Social on Friendly is about people, food, and good times. As new owners, our goal is to create memories that build on the incredible past that our location possesses. We are here for you and to provide an experience that makes you feel like family. Our food, personality, and atmosphere is our vehicle to build lasting relationships.. and most of all, we care. Stop in and spend some time with us.
Look forward to seeing you!

-Chris, Alana, & Justin

Would you like to be more involved in the neighborhood? Interested in the activities of the Greensboro Police Department? Please consider representing Sunset Hills at the Citizens Advisory Committee. It is helpful to have two neighbors share this position. The time commitment involved includes 1 monthly meeting (for 10 months), the second Monday of each month from 6:00-7:00PM and easy planning for the National Night Out each August. This is a very easy and interesting way to be involved in keeping Sunset Hills a great place to live. Feel free to call Mary Schwarz at 651-788-0751 for more information.

HELP Wanted

Robin Timmins wants to be replaced as the web site coordinator. She has done this job for a number of years and needs a break. Please volunteer by contacting Robin at timmins203@gmail.com.

Marlene Pratto is ready to give up her newsletter position as well. After more than 12 years it is time for a change. There are instructions on how to do the newsletter to get you started and help is a phone call or email message away. Contact Marlene at mrpsunset@gmail.com.

Please come forth alone or with someone with whom you can share the work.

If safety is your interest, Mary Schwarz would like you to accompany her to the Neighborhood Watch meetings. There should be two people. See Mary's articles that keep us uptodate on the listserv and in the newsletters.

Scott Michaels would like to share some of his presidential tasks with a co-president or a vice president.

Being part of the Sunset Hills Association is more fun when the tasks are shared. Y'all volunteer.

Growing Peace

By Lisa Lewis

A unique and beautiful non-profit organization, New Arrivals Institute, operates on the edge of Sunset Hills at the corner of Market Street and Lindell Road, on the campus of Peace United Church of Christ. New Arrivals Institute offers English classes for newly arrived refugees and immigrants and a preschool for the families taking classes. New Arrivals has partnered with Peace Church and UNCG to build an outdoor learning environment called Growing Peace Community and Children's Outdoor Learning Place. Through grants and generous contributions from many organizations, families, other churches, Girl Scout and Boy Scout troops Growing Peace is taking shape! We have a mud kitchen, a music center, a sand area, riding pathway and more. We want all Sunset Hills residents to come see and enjoy using Growing Peace. Community residents are welcome to use it during the afternoons and on weekends. To find out more you can visit the New Arrivals Institute web site <https://newarrivalsinstitute.org/> and Growing Peace Community and Children's Outdoor Learning Place has a facebook page too.

Our Neighborhood Tennis Court

By Roger Bardsley

Our neighborhood now has a newly refurbished tennis court with striping both for tennis and pickleball. This was a neighborhood request to the city and represents an attempt to "go back" to how tennis was played 40-50 years ago. Then, people contacted each other to arrange friendly matches and they walked or rode bikes to the court. No driving to a tennis center and no league rules. Note that Greensboro would never build a new neighborhood court. What we have is a beautiful piece of the past and we need to thank the city by using it!

Two stray cats find their forever home in Sunset Hills.

by Terry Rader, contributing writer for Yes! Weekly

As a young girl, Tami Williams had always wanted a white cat and she even wrote about one that won best short story in the county for her grade. Her wish came true many years later as an adult when a stray happened upon her parents' land in Ether, NC. Her parents already had two cats when they sent a photo of this gorgeous white cat lying in the fall leaves. Tami said she couldn't get him out of her mind and worried about the coyotes in the area. She was mourning the passing of her cat that died five months earlier. It seemed destined for "Snowflake" to come to Sunset Hills to live with her and her husband, Jeff. Tami said that Snowflake already knew her from her visits to Ether and he jumped right in the bed the first night. He had scars on his ears from fighting, but when Tami found a bump on his back, she had a gut feeling that something was really wrong and she was right. The vet at Carolina Veterinary Specialists said that getting him seen so quickly probably saved his life. Snowflake had an infected abscess that required surgery and had spread to his abdomen, but luckily not to other organs. Those first two weeks with a cone on his little head to protect his stitches was hard for everyone, but the little breaks of "cuddle" time made Snowflake happy and despite the odds, he recovered and became a loving indoor pet.

Later, a vet suggested they get a friend for Snowflake and along came a tiny little kitty, Bucky, who was almost two months old. He was a stray that someone found beside a dumpster and fostered. He was very smart and friendly and everyone at the vet's office loved him. Tami texted a photo to Jeff, who immediately texted back, "I think you should bring him home." She did and said Bucky was jumping up the walls and still has a lot of energy. Tami had planned to keep Snowflake and Bucky separated for two weeks, but after a week, she and Jeff decided to let them hang out together. She said that Snowflake was very gentle with Bucky and gave him light warning bites. Tami said they are both very lovable and thankful to be indoor cats. Like most rescues, they know they have a great life.

PROPOSE. VOTE. BUILD.

PB GREENSBORO

PBGreensboro.com

It is time to vote for district 4 participatory projects. Participatory budgeting (PB) was approved by Greensboro City Council in October 2014 and is now in its 3rd cycle. Previous cycle completed district 4 projects include the recently installed Walker Ave bridge railing and the Elam/Camden cross-walk. PB is a democratic process where Greensboro residents decide how to spend City budgeted funds ($100,000 per district). Residents come up with ideas, volunteers turn those ideas into projects that get vetted by the city and then approved projects are voted on by residents (14 years of age or older). Residents can only vote on projects in their assigned districts.

Voting started September 7th with a kickoff campaign at the NC Folk Festival. Online voting options are available this year (look for a link on PB's Facebook Page, through our email list serve, as well as the below link).

<https://www.greensboro-nc.gov/departments/budget-evaluation/participatory-budgeting>

The following are the district 4 projects that were approved for voting (If you are reading this, you are likely in District 4):

1. Lindley Park Pool Upgrades
 - Paint locker rooms and apply an epoxy floor coating to the floors.
2. Sunset Hills Park / Market St. crosswalk
 - East Greenway / Market St. increased visibility (blinking signs for drivers) and pedestrian crossing area due to the increasing amount of kid/family crossing
3. Our Lady of Grace Crosswalk
 - Berkley and Chapman Pl as well as Sylvan and Chapman re-working signage and increase visibility of crosswalks in this area.
4. Sunset Hills Park Tree Clean-up
 - Removal of a handful of trees in the park due to safety concerns. Replacement of trees with new plantings
5. Pomona Park upgrades (2 projects)
 - Upgrade of outfield at Pomona baseball field near Rucker St. and Clifton Rd to remove the gravel from field
 - Update of the basketball hoops

Let's get out the vote and show the City that we want to continue this program. If the program continues next year, make sure to get your projects on the ideas list and, if possible, volunteer to help vet the projects.

Your District 4 Team,
Audrey, Becca, Brad, Bret

Morgan Stanley

Four Generations of Plot Twists

He's got a gift for gymnastics. She's got her eye on a little start-up in the valley. And he wants to retire early. How do you create a wealth plan that reflects all the complexity of a modern family? Start with a Financial Advisor who understands individuals and knows how to bring families together around both shared and personal goals. Let's have that conversation.

September 2019 Treasurer Report - Membership List

By Elaine Brune

Dues are $10. Our fiscal year goes from January to December, so dues are due now. Any additional amount is considered a contribution. Membership entitles you to use the listserv, a wonderful way to stay in touch with the neighborhood; ask for help; sell/give away stuff; get vendor recommendations from your neighbors; and help reunite the occasional lost dog/cat/bird with its frantic owner. Check out the front page of this newsletter for annual events that bring neighbors together for social occasions and work projects that help to keep our neighborhood looking good. Send a check made out to SHNA for $10.00 to me, Elaine Brune 2504 Sylvan Road 27403 or PayPal (see website <http://www.sunsethillsneighborhood.org/>). And let me know how you want to be listed in our records Call me if you have any questions.

Elaine 336 601 5719.

Thanks to all our neighbors who have paid their dues.
